Moving the Prison.

Wadsworth, Nev. Feb. 23.

EDITOR DISPATCH—

I see by the newspapers that at a meeting of the citizens of Reno the county was pledged to stand $20,000 of the expense of the removal of the State Prison from Carson to Reno. I would like to know by what authority this pledge was given. If it can be shown that the project would be of great benefit to the public at large let the State bear the expense, but if, on the other hand, a few of the business men of Reno and vicinity are to reap the benefits let them go down into their own pockets, and not into the County Treasury. Neither the county nor the State should incur any more debts at this time. The county within the past year has had one costly piece of extravagance to pay for—1 man the new wagon road from Reno to Lake Tahoe built solely for the benefit of Reno and which if completed and kept in repair will cost more than all the rest of the roads in the county. Let us say what we owe and go slow till times are more prosperous.

TAXPAYER.

Taxpayer's article is timely and replete with good sense and argument. Since the matter has been broached it has been given careful thought by many besides Taxpayer, and they would like to know by what authority the pledge was given. Taxpayer is right in saying that if it can be shown that the project will be of great benefit to the public at large, the State should bear the expense. A meeting divided in sentiment and then held in only one precinct in the county is most assuredly not a meeting representative of the county's sentiment. The County Treasury should not, in any event, be sacked for any purpose not representing the will of the majority in the county, and many of Washoe's citizens do not feel that it would be just to have this expense saddled upon them.

Reno's sister towns would undoubtedly have better feelings toward her were she less selfish and more disposed to lend a helping hand to them when they plead for it. However, we bear in mind, and are glad of the fact now, that the meeting referred to was not representative, in as much as we believe that had all Reno's business men been present at that meeting, different action would have been taken.—Wadsworth Dispatch.

From this on I will keep 10 varieties of apple trees that will keep from March to May, such as will sell in San Francisco by the car-load when California apples are going out of season. I will do my own grafting and bring the prices down. In Spring I will condense from publications East and West the cheapest and best way to abate and destroy fruit pests. I have elms and other shade trees, roses and general nursery supplies.

Probably Drowned.

San Francisco, Feb. 27.—It is thought that A. R. Church, a member of the firm of D. Live & Co., leather dealers of this city, and Eugene Frost, Secretary of the Men's Electric Street road in Oakland, have been drowned. Both men, who live in Oakland, went to Alviso Saturday night to shoot ducks. They hired a small bottom boat and went out among the tule Sunday morning. They did not return the boat, which was found bottom up. Church did not appear at his office this morning and Frost has not been home. Nothing has been seen or heard of the missing men since they started out hunting.
